

A WILL

A Will is a most misunderstood legal document. A Will is something everyone should understand and possess because any amount of property constitutes an estate and every estate should be protected by a Will. Approximately 70 % of the people who die each year do so without a Will. There are some practical reasons why every adult should have a Will:

- To fulfill the Christian obligation before God to justly dispose of our possessions at death.
- To dispose of property as one wishes. Without a Will, your property will be distributed according to the laws of the state of your residence. Your unwritten plans and intentions are of no legal effect without a valid Will.
- To select a person you wish to administer your estate, to provide for the guardianship of minor children and/or to resolve any special business arrangements.
- To designate any charitable bequests.

Some people prefer to have a Living Trust rather than a Will. A Living Trust differs from a Will in that it is a legal agreement/document in which assets are placed during your lifetime. The Trust terms are private and the assets held by the Trust avoid the legal process called "probate".

As you prepare or update your Will or Living Trust, it is best to consult with an attorney.

INTRODUCTION

Growing numbers of individuals are establishing planned gifts to advance the mission and the ministry of the IHM Sisters. Many are realizing that one can support the sisters' cause while at the same time – depending on the most advantageous gift method – receive a guaranteed income for life and/or considerable tax savings.

You don't need to give tremendous amounts of money to make a difference. Small, well-thought out gifts are effective ways to support causes you care about and believe in, like the IHM Sisters. Gifts don't have to be in cash only. Any asset may be given such as stocks, bonds, property, etc. As a matter of fact, giving appreciated assets as a planned gift may offer the donor more tax advantages than giving cash. There are several ways to establish a planned gift. The chart in this brochure gives you some basic information on a variety of ways. You should consult with your attorney and/or financial advisor before you finalize a planned gift.

We invite you to learn more about planned giving and to prayerfully consider an option that will help advance the IHM Sisters' mission.
