

Deep Faith. Courageous Spirit. Action for Justice.

Core Educational Beliefs

Inspired by our founders, Theresa Maxis Duchemin and Louis Florent Gillet, the Congregation of the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (IHM) have served the people of God in education since 1845.

The mission of the IHM-sponsored educational institutions includes personal and social transformation, which bear witness to the liberating mission of Jesus.

We believe our sponsored institutions are partners in mission by fostering excellence in education and by living into the following deeply held beliefs:

- a commitment to the liberating mission of Jesus with special focus on those who are poor, abandoned or oppressed;
- the development of a Christian community that witnesses to a profound respect for each human being and an acceptance of all persons;
- challenging students to make decisions in the light of Gospel values and global realities;
- encouraging students to act on behalf of justice;
- a commitment to eradicate the causes of oppression and injustice through a feminist perspective that empowers all;
- ecological consciousness that challenges all to recognize the interconnectedness and interdependence of all Creation and nurtures relationships that protect our common home; and
- a holistic educational process that fosters self-motivation, flexibility and openness to change.
