A Lenten Retreat with Rev. Gilbert Enderle, CSsR

As we begin this Lenten season, we enter together into a wonderful time of prayer and reflection. In this retreat we look to Scripture and the spirituality shared by the IHM and the Redemptorist communities as we create more expansiveness in our own lives of service and deepen our relationship with God. We especially hope to relish our shared call to be, as Jesus was, the Good News of Our God ... treasuring every opportunity to reflect bravely the values of our redeemer and touch the life of anyone poor and neglected, hurt and abandoned.

Redemptorist Gilbert Enderle, CSsR, has served as co-director of the Redemptorist Theology Residence in Chicago; as pastor of Nuestra Senoradel Perpetuo Socorro in San Antonio; and at the Redemptorist Historical Institute in Rome. Rev. Enderle currently pastors at St. Gerard Majella in Baton Rouge, La., and holds a doctorate degree in historical theology from St. Louis University.
