

EMBRACING STRUGGLE:

Walking in Hope with Teilhard de Chardin

A retreat with Kathleen Duffy, SSJ, PhD

Sunday, May 9–Friday, May 14, 2021

Beginning at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday and concluding at noon on Friday (morning sessions begin at 10:30 a.m.)

IHM Motherhouse
Maxis Community Room
610 W. Elm Ave.
Monroe, Mich.

The call to embrace struggle is not an act of resignation but a commitment to life in its fullness. In this retreat, we walk with Teilhard de Chardin – Jesuit, scientist, mystic – and explore the struggles he faced, especially in the world and Church, and prayerfully reflect on our own life experiences.

Kathleen Duffy, SSJ, PhD, is Professor Emerita of Physics at Chestnut Hill College and director of the Institute for Religion and Science at Chestnut Hill College. She serves on the advisory boards of the American Teilhard Association and Cosmos and Creation and is editor of Teilhard Studies, a biannual publication of the American Teilhard Association. She has multiple publications, including Teilhard's Struggle: Embracing the Work of Evolution (Orbis 2019). Sister Kathleen also guides evening, weekend, and weeklong retreats on topics related to Teilhard's life and work.
