

Mary Ann Carolin, IHM Associate, died Feb. 20; she was 78.

She earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Detroit and held two master's degrees from Marygrove. She ministered as an LGBT ally at St. Mary's Student Parish in Ann Arbor, Mich., and as a spiritual director at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Dexter, Mich. While living in Minneapolis/St. Paul, appointed by the archdiocese to be one of the first people working in an AIDS ministry. Mary Ann became an IHM Associate in 1984 and made her lifelong commitment as an associate in 2012.