

Noreen Foley, IHM Associate, died July 24; she was 83. She was the former Sister Noreen, IHM. She earned her bachelor's degree from Marygrove College, Detroit, and her master's degree in theology from The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C. She was a teacher for 13 years in the Detroit area, Monroe and at Immaculate Heart of Mary High School in Westchester, Ill. After leaving the IHM community, she worked in the field of human resource management for 25 years and retired from Lockheed Martin. Noreen was active in her parish in Akron, Ohio; was a member of the advisory committee for the Children's Millennium Fund of the Akron Community Foundation and was a member of the Christ Child Society – Akron Chapter. She became an IHM Associate in 2006 and made her life-long Associate commitment in 2012.