

Beryl E. Harriott, IHM Associate, died Jan. 11, 2018; she was 85. She earned master's degrees – in education from New York University and in pastoral studies from Sacred Heart Major Seminary. She was a registered dietitian, ministering at Henry Ford Medical Group as director of Nutrition Services. In her "retirement," Beryl served as pastoral associate at Corpus Christi Church in Detroit. In 2007, she received the Walter Romig Lay Alumnus Award from Sacred Heart Major Seminary, the first woman to be recognized in this way. She became an IHM Associate in 1996.