

Sister Therese Kearney attended the University of Detroit from 1945-1948. She entered the IHM community in 1948 and was received in 1949.

She earned her Bachelor of Music degree from Marygrove College in 1954 and her Master of Education degree from Wayne State University in 1967.

1950-1951: Hall of the Divine Child – Monroe
Teacher, music

1971-1972: St. Thomas Aquinas – Detroit
School music educator/parish music director

1972-1975: St. Kevin Parish – Inkster, Mich.
Music director, organist

1975-1976: St. Cecilia – Detroit
Learning Resource Center director

1976-1982: Detroit Board of Education
Learning Resource

Center coordinator

1982-1985: Detroit Board of Education
Teacher/music

1985-1987: St. Gerald Parish
Farmington, Mich.
Ministry of music

1987-1993: Residence – Detroit
Musician, liturgist

1993-1996: St. Anthony Academy
Belleville, Mich.
Music educator

1951-1952: Gesu – Detroit
Teacher, music

1952-1953: Hall of the Divine Child – Monroe
Teacher, music, applied, instrumental

1953-1956: St. Agnes – Detroit
Teacher, music, grades six-eight; choral, high school/grade four

1956-1957: St. Anne – Warren,
Mich.
Teacher, grades two-six, music, social studies, art

1957-1958: Epiphany – Detroit
Teacher, grade five

1958-1960: St. Felicitas – Chicago
Teacher, music, choral, voice, organ, piano

1960-1964: St. Monica –
Mobile, Ala.
Teacher, grades three, six

1964-1969: Immaculata
High School – Detroit
Teacher, studio music, choral, piano, organ, English

1969-1970: Monastery of
St. Alphonsus
Liguori – Liguori, Mo.

1970-1971: Sacred Heart – Dearborn, Mich.
Teacher, music grades one-12

1996-2000: Mack
Educational Services
Grosse Pointe, Mich.
Music educator

2000-2016:
Freelance music educator

2016-2017: Volunteer,
Homelessness

2017— Prayer and Presence

Therese Kearney