

Sally Ann Weiland, IHM Associate, died April 28; she was 78. She attended Marygrove College, Kent State University and Cuyahoga Community College. She worked in government service for 25 years at NASA Glenn Research Center in Cleveland. Sally was an active member of her parish community of St. Mark (Cleveland), serving as a Eucharistic minister; as a member of the Continuation Committee for renewals and spiritual programs and the “Joyfully Gifted” program; and as a board member of St. Mark’s Footprints of faith. She also volunteered as a driver for the Poor Clare Sisters. She became an IHM Associate in 2010.

